

Code of Conduct

As a participant in an activity at Kentucky Christian University, you are expected to observe the following Code of Conduct and we ask that you share this with all participants and take responsibility for those participants:

- All participants are expected to maintain a positive attitude during the tournament as unity and cooperation are key elements in making it a success.
- All participants are expected to respect and obey staff personnel and adult group sponsors.
- You should bring an alarm clock.
- All participants are expected to respect others in the dorms. Curfew is 11:00pm and all attendees are expected to be quiet at this time.
- All participants are expected to dress appropriately for a Christian function. Messages displayed on clothing that are opposed to the standards of Kentucky Christian University are not allowed. (i.e. beer advertisements, profanity, etc.)
- The use of illegal drugs, alcohol, perverse/profane language is strictly forbidden. The campus of Kentucky Christian University is designated as a smoke-free environment. The use of tobacco products is prohibited.
- KCU is a weapons free campus and all firearms, fireworks, water cannons, water guns and water balloons are prohibited.
- The following areas are designated as off limits to all participants:
 - The cemetery behind Dale Hall
 - Kentucky Christian University Apartments
 - Chapel House and Friendship House
 - Dorms of the opposite sex
- All participants are expected to observe common courtesy (picking up trash, litter, and cleaning up after themselves).
- Public display of affection between couples is not permitted.
- If property damage occurs, you may be charged a minimum of $50 plus materials and labor to repair such damage.

I realize that violation of any portion of the Code of Conduct may result in my dismissal or the dismissal of any participant from the premises of Kentucky Christian University and forfeiture of all monies paid. Dismissal is at the discretion of the Director of the Bible Bowl program.
