SUMMER READING Challenge

This year, KCU's Summer Reading Challenge will be from May 5th - September 2nd!

How it works:

- 1) Grab a book in any genre and any format.
- 2) When you finish reading, email nenders@kcu.edu the title and author of the book.
- 3) Alumni should also include their year of graduation/attendance.
- 4) For every book completed, your name will be entered into a drawing for a $25 Amazon gift card. There will be a total of 5 gift cards given away.
- 5) Eligibility - You must be a KCU student enrolled for Fall 2025, a KCU faculty or staff member, or a KCU alumnus in order to participate.

For more information visit our KCU Young Library Summer Reading Challenge 2025 guide.

LIBRARY TECHNOLOGY HELPFUL HINTS

Using Video Game Soundtracks for Studying or Relaxing

Many people use music as a way to improve concentration. We often are encouraged to listen to classical music. It is used to help us focus and minimize distraction.

Recently, we found an article on using video game soundtrack music to help with studying for exams or even relaxing! (<https://tinyurl.com/yhb3wabp>) It makes sense. How many times do you look at your phone while playing a video game? Check out the article for suggested soundtracks or look on YouTube!

NATIONAL POETRY MONTH

April is National Poetry Month! Think about poetry in different ways - as song lyrics, unrhymed poems, or raps. Then bring your poem to read aloud at Carter County's Poetry Society Community Reading Afternoon on Saturday, April 12th from Noon - 3pm @ Young Library!

HOLIDAYS/EVENTS

April 12 - CCPS Community Poetry Reading, 12-3pm, KCU
April 13-17 - Spring Fling
April 18-20 - Easter Weekend
April 24 - Leadership Confer Conference
April 28-May 1 - Extended Hours
